Review            9/10

This is not a 9/10 just because its my local. In fact it used to be “The Village Indian” and scored a 7. When it first changed hands it dropped to a 6. Now they have a new chef and the food is fantastic. If you like it hot try “The Guru”. They also have Bangla lager on tap which goes really well with the food. Tattenhall may be a small village but has easily the best Indian in Cheshire.
