I don't normally go for the "meal deals" but I got this by default as I did not notice it was on. Popadoms, starter, main course, rice and Naan for £9.95, bargain!!

Popadoms were nice and fresh and I tried Roast Quail for starter which was nice but very small. The madras main course was very good, lots of sauce just how I like it with a good kick. Nice atmosphere and good service make this a place I will go back to.
