Review (by The MCC)

Bit of a chicken madras shop this but good nonetheless. Started with the usual big crisps, very fresh with a good selection of pickles. Onto the starters, Nargis Kebab with some Chicken Tikka, very tasty and served piping hot.

Treated myself to 2 mains (was starving) Lamb Madras and Chicken Sag, excellent. I tend not to go for rice so I had a really good and very fresh naan.

Quality food from this place, I would certainly go again.
